

Doris Elizabeth Brannen

February 14, 1948 - March 4, 2026

Doris Elizabeth Brannen, 78 of Mooresville, NC passed away peacefully on Wednesday, March 4 at Duke Health Lake Norman. She was born February 14, 1948 in Charlotte, NC daughter of the late John Edward Thrower and Margaret Josephine Madagan Thrower.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brother Eddie Thrower; sisters Margaret Matson, Edna Plyler, Evelyn Small and son in law Jamie Gilbert. Nephews Joey Matson and John Thrower.

Doris graduated from Harding High School, Charlotte in 1966 and attended Kings College. She dedicated several years to the Charlotte School Board, then worked at a doctor's office in Charleston, but she will be remembered most for her 15 years at Fast Phil's on Brawley School Road in Mooresville. After retiring in 2000, she devoted herself full-time to being a loving Mammaw to Whitney and David, who were her greatest joy. She was a devoted and active member of Triplett United Methodist Church for many years. Known for her booming voice and infectious, joyful cackle, Doris brought life to every room. We know she will be sitting around in heaven with her restless foot tapping, laughing and acting up with her sisters and brother but she will be deeply missed by all of us here.

She leaves behind her husband of 57 years, Michael "Butch" Brannen, son, Michael Brannen (Karen) and daughter Amy Gilbert of Mooresville.

Grandchildren, Whitney Brannen of Raleigh and David Brannen of Charlotte.
Nieces, Terri Porcher (Eddie) of James Island, SC, Lori Rayano (Joe) of McConnells, SC, Debbie Vaught (James) of Conway, SC. Sherri Abel of Charleston, SC. and Mary Katherine Thrower of SC. Nephew Joe Small (Electa) of Georgetown, SC. and Timothy Thrower of SC.

A celebration of life service will be held by the family on Monday, March 9th at 11 am at the Heritage House Cavin Cook Funeral Home in Mooresville. The family will receive friends at 10 am.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Richard's Coffee Shop at www.welcomevets.com or West Church LKN at www.headingwest.org.

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home & Crematory, Mooresville, is serving the Brannen family. Condolences may be made to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.

“Doris played a large part in my teenage years and a friendship that has continued til now. She will be always be in my fondest memories of school, Myrtle Beach and adventures with our partner in time Connie. I’m sure Doris was welcomed with open arms by all who went before her. My love and heartfelt thoughts go to Butch, Michael and Amy I’m sorry I can’t be there with you tomorrow but I am in thoughts and love ❤️ Sylvia Allen Kinney

“I have known Doris and Butch for 55 years. As young adults just starting out in life..Doris, Butch, my husband Jerry and I played cards every Friday night until the wee hours of Saturday morning. When our husbands graduated from college we all ended up in Charleston SC and we switched to hanging out in a backyard pool and playing back gammon every Saturday with our young kids running around. Life was good. I’ll miss Doris so completely. Love to Butch, Amy, Michael and all her family

“I knew Doris from years past. We rented a home from her in-laws and my children went to their day care, The Sandbox. Also I knew Doris from being at Triplett Church. Doris was always asking about the family and remembering the good times at the Daycare. You always knew she was around by her booming voice and laughs. Rest in peace Doris. Sending all my prayers to the family.
