Thanks for being the model mother for each of us and raising us, and now the our children, the right way. I'm missing you already and will do so every day. “ I have many sweet memories of Doris from McKendree Church and Elox. She was a faithful servant, using her talent of music to the glory of God. Doris and the choir members welcomed me as a shy sixteen year old into the choir at McKendree many years ago and I will always hold her in my heart. My sincere condolences to David and the family.
