“ Dottie, you taught us all how to face adversity with grace and a smile. I will miss listening to Irish music with you, but I'm sure they play Irish ballads in heaven.

“ Ms Dottie, from slipping me stamps when I needed them or by letting me clean her house b/c she knew I needed extra money...or by always bringing pepp/cheese/crackers to office parties b/c she knew I loved them.....she was looking out for others.....will miss her friendly smile, but will take comfort knowing she is smiling with angel wings now.....

“ Dottie! You were a very special person! I will miss you and our talks when I came down to visit! We took some rides along the country side and had some nice lunches! But now you are walking the streets of Gold! No more tears no more pain. One day I will see you again!
I will always look after Colleen , she is like a daughter to me!
