“Dot was always so much fun when we were teenagers. She was one of the "cool moms!" I always loved being at her house! She was a great cook, loved her house to be clean (Sharon is just like her), and adored her kids and grandkids. She loved to tell you their latest accomplishments and interests with so much pride. I will miss her dearly, but I will make her a promise to always stand by Sharon and have her back and be the friend she deserves. I will help to guard her heart and will love her and cherish her and protect her as only a best-friend would. You will be missed, Dot. Rest in Glory, wonderful lady.

“Dorothy was the prime example of how wonderful a great grandmother should be. She showed myself and my children so much love. She accepted me with open arms and was nothing but supportive through everything in our lives. We will forever miss her and always cherish the memories we had with her.
