“ I can't believe you are gone. I didn't know you well, but the few times we talked and briefly hung out you were always nice and kind. Always funny. I know you are in a better place making jokes and making everyone laugh. You are and will continue to be missed.

“ Kim, I've just seen this on Mary Alice's fb. I'm so very sorry for the loss of your son. It's something no parent should suffer. Although we've not seen in each other in many, many years, you're in my thoughts.

Leigh Patton Gillam - June 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM

“ Kim and family, So very sad to hear of Dylan's passing. Know that our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ They say a man is made by the company he keeps. If that is the case, Dylan made me more of a man than I ever was. November 2009 We Begin our friendship on a cold evening putting in an alternator in my wife's vehicle. The last time I saw you we were discussing the transmission for the same vehicle. In between that all you did was capture the hearts of my family with your sense of humor and your and strong heart. From countless trips around the area to go look at cars, to buckets of oil and grease in my car ports from you working on those cars, saving you on the side of a mountain and to the many trips to Mooresville football games and Bobcats/Hornets games that we made we were there for each other. You were there the day two of my children were born and they loved their "Uncle Dylan" more than you knew. These 7 years flew by way to quick but your memory will be in our hearts forever. Love ya buddy.
