*Great video , I had the pleasure of meeting ed while walking at the ymca. We had many wonderful conversations. I was able to see he wasn't feeling well and took every opportunity to say hello or stop for a quick conversation.
Pleasure to of met him .*

“ Dad,

On July 17, 2024 I went over to Mary's home in Oak Tree Village to offer a toast to you. James, Jill and of course little Nugget were there to offer a toast as well. Of course we toasted with VO and the shot glasses we made in your honor. I gave each of them to keep as a memory. It was wonderful to see them and they miss you. They all still walk at the YMCA and sit on the benches to say hello to you. They wanted me to know that the benches are well used.

I miss you everyday!

Love, Kath

“ My deepest sympathy to Ed's family. Ed was one of a kind and I will be forever grateful for his friendship. I will miss our hours-long chats about family, friends, and life while sharing a glass (or two-ish) of VO. I will think of him often but especially when I'm sitting on one of his benches at the YMCA. God Bless You and Rest in Peace my friend 🍷📖🍷

“ Extending my deepest sympathies for the loss of your Father! I enjoyed playing cribbage with Ed. He used to say 'Shake 'em' about shuffling the cards which made me laugh.. What a sweet man and neighbor!

*Yours Truly,
Jill*
