

Edwin 'Ed' Rollin Braun

January 7, 1943 - February 9, 2016

Edwin "Ed" Rollin Braun, 73, of Mooresville, NC, passed away on Tuesday, February 9, 2016 at Novant Health Presbyterian Medical Center in Charlotte. He was born on January 7, 1943 in Detroit, MI, to the late Edwin and Elizabeth Herzog Braun. Ed received his Bachelor of Science in Aerospace Engineering at Parks College and his Masters of Science in Mechanical Engineering at NYU. He was a brilliant mind who spent his time working for General Electric, teaching the next generation of engineers at UNC Charlotte, working with NASCAR on the soft wall program, starting the Fire Program at UNC Charlotte and conducting research for NASA. Ed enjoyed coaching his daughter's softball team and never missed one of their games, meets or events. He cherished time with his grandchildren, taking them to the most magical place on earth (Disney World), pointing out monkeys in the trees and constantly reminding them that "If you can dream it, you can do it." He is survived by his beautiful wife of 51 years, Diane Kenyon Braun who he met in Sandusky, Ohio. Ed loved and cherished Diane and Diane loved and cherished him. They made every day of their life a celebration. Ed is survived by his daughters, Lisa Braun of Cincinnati, OH, Kelly Lefferts of Tampa, FL, Nancy Scheuerle and husband, Steve of Mooresville; and grandchildren, Katie, Stephen, Emma and Mia. He is also remembered by many wonderful people who he considered family. Ed was a member of St. Therese Catholic Church in Mooresville. A Memorial Mass will be held at 11:00 AM on Saturday, February 13 at St. Therese Catholic Church. Family and friends are welcome to gather at the lake house after the Mass. In lieu of flowers, in Ed's memory please perform a random act of kindness.

“ Diane, we are surprised and saddened to hear about Ed,s (Eddie as we know him) passing. I remember when he was young and we would play at Aunt Laura's He moved and we moved and saw very little of each other after that but we were always kept abreast of your activities by Mary, who dearly loved him. He was always gentle and kind. He will be missed. Your cousin, Carol Mueller.
