“ She was a delight when she came into the Food Lion near her home. We all will miss her. She made us all laugh, all the time. She always talked about her son, and how she was going to win the lottery. Much Love Sue and the gang at Food Lion

“ Eleanor lived in my mothers neighborhood. She was always friendly and smiling. Her love for animals was apparent as she walked dogs around the neighborhood. Her smile will definitely be missed.

I have been Eleanor's friend since I moved to NC 6 years ago. She was the first and only person that rang my bell and introduced herself to me. Eleanor was very talented and shared her poems, stories, and art work with me. Every Xmas she designed her own cards. I always looked forward to be on the receiving end. In fact...when my family came to visit I showed them this years card and my daughter in law and son asked if they could have the card. I gave it them and it went on their Xmas tree. My whole family had met Eleanor and they enjoyed her company. I will miss her greatly.
