

Eleanor Regina Starhill

February 2, 1954 - January 1, 2019

Eleanor Regina Starhill, 64, of Huntersville, passed away on Tuesday, January 1, 2019, at her residence.

She was born on February 2, 1954, in Nassau County, New York, to the late Stanley Williams and Julia Fitchko Lovejoy. Ms. Starhill traveled extensively as a young woman, not only across the continental United States, but also in Europe, Australia and South America. After college in Delaware she enjoyed farm living with her ex-husband Dave for ten years, then city life in New York for another decade before moving to North Carolina to be closer to her family.

For her entire life, she was an avid reader and loved music. When she settled down, she developed a love of gardening and enjoyed the time she spent growing the flowers with which she filled her home.

Ms. Starhill is survived by her sister, Marsha Mayhew, of Charlotte; brother, Bill Lovejoy, of Ann Arbor; and nieces Jennifer Dawn Mayhew, Dara Kristen Mayhew, and Julia Christina Lovejoy.

A private family service will be held later in the year. The family would appreciate that any memorials be made to the American Institute for Cancer Research, 1560 Wilson Blvd., Suite 1000, Arlington, VA 22209.

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home & Crematory, Mooresville, is serving the family of Ms. Starhill. Condolences may be made to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.

“ For Eleanor's Family and Friends,

I want to offer my deepest condolences to the close family and friends of Eleanor at this time. It is just today that I became aware of her passing. Eleanor and I had a very important appointment scheduled the week of her passing and I had wondered why I could not reach her to confirm our appointment as this was not typical of Eleanor as I had worked with her in the past and she was truly delightful and pleasant always.

I thought I would reach out today to make sure she was doing ok and thought perhaps she had been hospitalized only to find her phone had been disconnected (a surprise for me). After just a bit of research online I learned of Eleanor's passing today and realize there was another appointment much more important than the one scheduled with me that week...

In the short time that I had come to know her we had become trusted friends and she knew I would help her in any way possible. I am at peace knowing she is in a wonderful place.

God Bless Eleanor and her family and friends...
