“ *Lisha was a great brother - In-law just as about as nice and kind as you would want in a brother In-law ❤️
He love to talk to me about working in the mines and if everybody was going to be at his house to play cards on Friday night after work. I was 16 when I cane to know Lisha it sadness my heart to know he is gone but he is really home now. And he has made his journey. Now it is up to the rest of us to make ours and meet him in heaven. Waiting for the rest of us

I don't remember not knowing Elisha. I have so many good memories of him but I guess what I remember the most is seeing him sit on his front porch in the same chair. This buds for you 🍺🍺
