“ Only knew Ms Elsie for a short time, but she was a delight to be around and to talk to. She was always smiling when I talked to her and she never missed the opportunity to wave when she saw me. I will miss stopping by to say hello. May God comfort the family during this time and the days to come.

LO

REALLY?? You have the Nerve to put this on here?? Mama was NOT even allowed to SEE her granddaughter or great-granddaughter that died at the funeral home. We were ASK TO LEAVE the funeral home. There was NEVER spending the night, and lot's of Christmas with you NEVER. Mama wouldn't know you or any of the others if you would have walked up. Even when MY brother DIED, nobody wanted to speak to us. Terry did come to see Daddy a couple times years before he died, and by the way, He's been gone 8 years. How many times has anyone reached out to my Mama in all those times? So don't come on here like any of you cared. Mama said, "IF PEOPLE CAN'T COME to SEE ME WHEN I'M LIVING, DON'T COME SEE ME WHEN I DIE". So get off your quilty pity trip. Mama KNEW who did for her, and it sure wasn't anyone from over there. Get your facts straight, or talk with me, I will give you facts.
