“ I first met Janice through my camera lens. Her smile was radiant and welcoming. The more I came into contact with her -- the more we became friends. Janice was everywhere in the church -- volunteering and involved. Over the years, we enjoyed the same Bible Study class and fellowship time at numerous church events. I have many pictures of this incredibly beautiful woman. I will share some of them here. Janice will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Janice was an angel to me and my daughters. Forty some years ago when we needed a friend she and her children scooped us up and put their arms around us. I called Janice my angel from God and I thank Him for her. I will forever miss her with loving memories. Letha Payseur

What a sweet lady and my first real date (my dad had to drive me to the Creamer home and I was a nervous lad when Roy Creamer met me at the door). The world is not as bright without Janice.

How sad it is to think that so many friends and family will live on now without Janice. However, I grew up at First Baptist Church with this precious lady who always wore the brightest smile and had the sweetest spirit. We shared many laughs at church and high school band. How fortunate we are to have known her. Prayers for peace for Janice's family.
