“ So sorry to hear this about Emma Jane. Being from Eden I knew her and our lives crossed for years. She always had a smile on her face and would be laughing later. I know she has been welcomed home by her family and they are rejoicing she isn't suffering. My heart goes out to all of you at this very difficult time. There are a lot of prayers coming your way from Eden as so many residents knew her. All,of you are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ May you be comforted by the love and support of your many friends and family. Know that Emma will be greatly missed and we are celebrating a life that was well lived. Not long ago, during one of her stays in Baptist she emailed me to let me know she had a surprise visitor. Our son, Mike, had dropped by to see her. What a wonderful lady Emma was to meet & know!

“ Words can't describe how I will miss our mailbox gossip chats and our holiday get togethers!!! Thanks for being one of the best neighbors and friends and for teaching me the true meaning of Southern Hospitality!! I will do my best to help out with William, Rebecca and Will and Zoe! Miss you lots already!!!!:(

“ William, Will and Becca, I am sorry to hear of your loss. At times like these, we want to say something that will comfort you. Comfort will come in time. William, you and Emma visited our home when my son passed away. For those that have gone on, they can expect meeting their Savior and being completely and utterly healed. It is we that are left behind that miss. Soon we will meet them again. What a blessed hope we have. Hold on to your hope. Kids, know your mom took great delight in telling us your progress as you grew up. I know you will do your mom proud all your life.

“ Will, You are in our thoughts and prayers. Even though you may feel sad now, remember all the wonderful times you had with your mom and how proud she was of you and your successes. You have such a big heart and touch everyone that comes into your life. Feel her presence in your life each day as you move on from this time. We are here for you if you need anything. Love, Robert, Chalee', and family

“ Our deepest condolences. We have been gone from Mooresville for 7 years now but still remember Emma's wonderful personality. She was not afraid to fight for what she believed in and we appreciated her support when a group of us tried to save the year-round program at MGSD. She always wanted the best for her family and her community. And what fun it was working the concession stand with her at football games. Emma was one of a kind and the world is a better place because of her. God speed Emma!

“ Emma and I were great friends during our school years. I visited her family on many occasions after church for a hotdog and ice cream supper. Emma and her loving grandmother and aunts were a joy to be around. Emma was one of the happiest people I ever had the pleasure of knowing. She will be truly missed, but we all know where she is and I know she is laughing. My condolences go out to her family.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Davis. While no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for “the former things have passed away”. Please visit our website at jw.org if you want to learn about this beautiful hope and more.
