“ My thoughts are with you. I have many memories of Eric. He helped my father Art rebuild his mustang convertible top to bottom. I remember he had to make a perfect PBJ sandwich. The peanut butter had to be just right on the bread. He was the first person to take me out driving when I got my permit. I asked him where I should go, and he said to me "just drive". I have so many more memories of him, it would take a few chapters to write. I'm grateful to have know him, he was like a big brother to me in my teenage years. I am so sorry for your loss.
