“ Ernie has been in my thoughts for the past few weeks, for whatever reason I'm not sure. Ernie was my supervisor at Health and Human Services for many years, and I found him to be respectful, helpful, caring, intelligent, and courageous, and I could go on. He was also understanding. I did not know him out of the workplace, but I admired his tenacity through his approach to life. He set the bar high for the rest of us by just being who he was. I feel blessed to have worked with him. Sheila, you and your family have my sincere sympathy. You were blessed to have each other. I recently lost a family member, and someone shared this and I would like to share it with you. "Grief starts to become indulgent, and it doesn't serve anyone, and it's painful. But if you transform it into remembrance, then you're magnifying the person you lost and also giving something of that person to other people, so they can experience something of that person. “ Hi Sheila, we are so sorry for your loss I have fond memories of Ernie when you both lived here in NE and worked at NGM. Often had great discussion with Ernie out back at the office when he was picking you up out back in his van. You are in our prayers and thoughts during this difficult time and we will be thinking of you and your family. Tom & Ann Baird :-)
