Betty moved to the Mooresville area in the late 1960's after living in the surrounding Statesville & Love Valley area after moving from Greensboro, NC. Her and her kids always had a love for country living and riding horses which was passed down to her grandchildren who loved to rodeo. Her love of crocheting, sewing and knitting was passed down from her mother. She loved making works of art & love for her family, friends and all those in her life.

One of the most loved places she looked forward to was her weekly visits to the South Iredell Senior Center where she attended their weekly Writing Senior Memories session with her friends. She enjoyed writing memoirs about her experiences and all walks of her life. Her memory was sharp and she could remember all the things that she proudly loved to write down to share with everyone.

“ I count my friendship with Betty-Betty among the luckiest breaks to come my way, and regret being unable to attend her memorial service to share happy memories of her; know my thoughts and prayers are there in spirit.

Betty-Betty lived through an amazing time of social, political, and historic changes, from growing up on a farm in California, to witnessing the first manned space flight to becoming proficient with the latest techno-jazz. Yet she still made time each day for working out in her garden and cooking homemade meals for her family, even at 99.

I thoroughly enjoyed the past 9 years listening to her stories, every Tuesday, when Covid and the weather permitted, at our writer's class in Mooresville.

Miss Betty had a kind heart and generous nature; she demonstrated this constantly by making and sharing her latest handmade projects with everyone she met. I will cherish the memory of her Betty Boop high-pitched voice, as well as her easy laughter. Betty, I will miss our lunches at Corrine's, and thank you for your many, unsung selfless acts of kindness. Goodbye, dear friend.

“ We are so so sorry of your loss of Gmaw, she was such a BEAUTIFUL and LOVING, and SWEET lady. She was a one of a kind. She was the type of lady that you Loved just sitting around listening to her talk about lots of history that you never wanted to listen to at school because she lived it. I have cards and letters that she had sent to me and Jeff, and we will cherish them for ever. R.I.P. SWEET LADY. We will LOVE and MISS you forever. Love Homer & Nae.
