

Evan Franklin Brannon

November 6, 1984 - June 9, 2026

Evan Franklin Brannon, 41, of Mooresville, NC, went to be with the Lord on Tuesday, June 9, 2026, leaving behind a legacy of love and cherished memories. Born on November 6, 1984, in Iredell County, he was the beloved son of Cathy Hooper Steed and her husband, Michael William Steed, and the late Stephen Brannon.

Evan dedicated his life to his work as a foreman in the fire protection industry, a role that reflected his commitment to safety and service. He had a love for the outdoors, finding joy in fishing, hunting, and racing, as well as the simple pleasures of bonfires and grilling with family. He possessed a deep appreciation for farm work, which connected him to his roots and the land he loved.

In addition to his father, Evan was preceded in death by his brother, Stephen Heath Brannon. He is survived by his wife, Heather Deason Brannon, his mother and step-father, Cathy and Michael Steed, his sister, Stefanie Brannon Clanton and her husband, Monty, and a nephew, Cody Clanton and his wife, Josie. He was also a loving godfather to Carter Haskell, Mason Haskell, Brendon Fleming, and Kaylee Owens, each of whom will carry forward his spirit in their lives.

A memorial service will be held in his honor at Prospect Presbyterian Church in Mooresville at 2 PM on Monday, June 15, 2026. The family will welcome friends and loved ones for a time of reflection and remembrance from 1-2 PM prior to the service. Rev. Will Gipe will officiate this gathering, celebrating Evan's life, his passions, and his enduring love for family and friends.

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home in Mooresville is honored to serve the Brannon family during this difficult time. Friends and family are encouraged to share their condolences and memories at www.cavin-cook.com.
