“ I will miss her so much. I would give perms to her and she would always remind me what to do. One thing she would always say, I'm praying for you and don't retire till I die. Well I retired last week. Remember giving her a flower I had at the shop she would let me know how it was doing and the flowers she had on it. She was one of a kind and a very special lady. Will miss her. Prayers for the family. Joyce Fowler

“ I always looked forward to church ending on Sunday to shake the preacher's hand and head out to the country for Mawmaw's chicken, mac n cheese and potato salad. She whipped up a feast in 30 minutes that would take anyone else a whole day. Her and my pawpaw took my sister and I to Nashville, TN on a Christian Tours bus and made us feel like royalty. A few close friends and I would visit nearly every Sunday and she would put us to work cleaning pollen off patio furniture or picking up expired clay pigeons from my Dad and uncle. During one recent visit she shared with me that she always wanted to ride in a convertible. My closest friend there at the time said she had the covered. The next Sunday she had her wish. My friend insisted I take mawmaw for a ride in her convertible BMW. While it was a short ride, I could see her chicking that off her bucket list in her smile from ear to ear.

“ Evelyn was precious in so many ways. She always had a smile on her face, full of advice, and such a warm presence. We could talk about church and her passion for gardening for hours along with the love she had for her family. She will always have a special place in my heart and I will miss my Sunday afternoon bike rides to go see her but there is peace in knowing she is with our Heavenly Father. Praying for the family.

Mrs Kerr was a very sincere lady. We appreciated her warm welcome when we visited her in Mount Ulla. Her kindness and generosity are forever in our hearts. Our deepest sympathies to her wonderful son Randy and his generous wife Linda who gave her time and the very best care possible during those last years of her life.

La perte d'un être cher est une grande épreuve de la vie. Avec l'aide de Dieu, la famille et les amis cette douleur deviendra plus facile à accepter.
