

Faye Hayes

December 30, 1946 - September 26, 2022

Faye Blakely Hayes of Mooresville passed away on Monday, September 26, 2022, with her loving family by her side. She was born December 30, 1946 in Greenville, SC, to the late Ansel and Elizabeth Stansell Blakely. Faye met Roger, her devoted husband of 53 years, at Erskine College. She was the beloved mother of Stephanie Dillon (Jonathan) and Laura Arnall (Justin), proud grandmother of Charlie Dillon, Tyler Dillon, Georgia Arnall and Camille Arnall. She is also survived by her brother, Terry Blakely (Bennie) and sister-in-law Jan Lucas (George).

Faye was a devoted member of Davidson United Methodist Church and, previously, Westminster Presbyterian Church in Greensboro. She had a passion for serving others and volunteered her time driving Mobile Meals in Guilford County. She also served as a Guardian Ad Litem in Iredell County. Faye enjoyed caring for her home, family and friends. She was a beautiful decorator, generous host and made the very best Peach Blackberry Crisp. As a farm girl at heart, gardening was one of her true passions and she took pleasure in being an active member of the Lake Norman Garden Club. She cherished the outdoors and instilled in her family a deep appreciation for nature. She enjoyed travel, gatherings with friends, playing bridge and, most of all, spending time with her grandchildren.

Throughout her long journey with cancer, she was an inspiration to others with her strength, grace, faith, dignity, and optimism. Faye always had a welcoming smile on her face, even during her toughest days. She was gracious to everyone and freely offered kind words (or a delicious casserole) to others. She will be deeply missed and forever in our hearts.

Deep gratitude to Dr. Timothy Kuo and his staff for their years of dedicated care, Carolina BioOncology and S. Mitchell Mack Hospice. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Mooresville Christian Mission, PO Box 62, Mooresville, NC 28115 or S. Mitchell Mack Hospice House, 1325 Mecklenburg Hwy, Mooresville, NC 28115.

A memorial is scheduled for 2:00 PM Saturday, October 8th at Davidson United Methodist Church in Davidson, NC. The family will receive friends at 1:00 PM prior to the service at Davidson United Methodist Church.

“ I'm sorry to hear about Faye. She and I were schoolmates all our lives and graduated together. Faye was smart, beautiful, sweet, and kind. She played basketball and was voted “most athletic”and was a Furman (university) scholar and had more honors. The Ellen Woodside High School Class of '65 will miss her. My condolences to her family.

“ Faye was a dear friend. Always kind sweet, and generous to everyone. She was always there for everybody. She was a pillar of our neighborhood. She was a great role model. She touched the lives of so many people and made us all better by knowing her. She was courageous and strong. Our prayers go out to her family. May all the memories you shared together help you through this difficult time. GOD has a new angel now. GOD Bless. Love, Patty and John.

“ Faye was one of my first friends in the neighborhood. I loved her dearly. She taught us all about faith and courage. She was a wonderful woman, and I will always picture her striding through the neighborhood with her arms swinging, Roger at her side. Our hearts go out to the Hayes family. Love, Susie and Ron Plantan
