“ Hi Tim, We just learned of your dad's passing. We loved him very much and enjoyed the weekly visits shared for a few years until life took us in another direction. We had lots of wonderful talks. He was a great man who we were lucky to share some of our life with. We will continue to miss him always. We are thinking of you & the family. He loved you with all his heart & soul. You are a terrific son and took great care to make sure he always had what he needed, mostly the love & time you gave him. He is at peace with Ruth now waiting on everyone else to catch up.

“ May God Bless each of you. I need your Prayers and Love. My sorrow and pain has been even more than I dreamed. Yes, I know for sure we will be together again. Being truthful, that wonderful fact just doesn't help this moment of missing him right now. Don't get me wrong, God's wonderful Grace is all that brought me this far and It will take me through every moment of grief.
