“ Frank and I were very close our senior year at Xavier and became even closer when we took our “trips” to Jersey City and the Red Garter in Manhattan. We were together with our dates at the Military Ball and Prom. He was the guy who brought me out of my “shell”. We lost touch after high school, very regrettably, but got in touch again at Xavier re-unions. I was in touch with him about his condition but he never let on about the seriousness of it. This is very difficult to handle, losing a very close high school buddy. RIP my friend and may God bless you and your family.
