“ My heart goes out to the entire family. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Dale's faithfulness to Triplett UMC was endless. I will always remember Dale singing in the choir every Sunday. He was always at the annual Triplett UMC barbecues. He worked for hours the days leading up to it and the entire day in the kitchen.
He was so kind and always greeted everyone he met at church on Sundays. He loved his family so very much. Everyone at Triplett and the community were blessed to know him.

“ I could never express what precious memories I have spending time with Uncle Dale going back to my earliest childhood and family memories. He always had open arms, a hug, and exuberant joy and genuine love and concern for all. He left his kids, grandkids and more a wonderful legacy based on Hope in Christ. Love you Uncle Dale. You got your wings!
