“ Thoughts and prayers for Angela and family. Fred was such and sweet, caring, and funny man. He touched my heart and always made me smile when I seen and talked to him. I used to fuss at him like where is your coat ots chilly outside or i seen you mowing yesterday in 90 degree heat and I would say please wait til it cools of the evenings his response would be it's got to be done. I only knew him for 3 years but he reminded me of my grandfather and I always enjoyed our talks and seeing him in the store. I will always remember him and his kindness and stories.

“ It's hard to believe that Fred and Linda are both gone. We were friends for 42 years and I still remember all the wonderful times we had on our trips to Memphis and all the fun times we had with all the other Elvis fans. My thoughts and prayers are with Angie and the rest of the family. Fred will be greatly missed just as Linda is.
