“ Fred was such a kind and gentle soul, and our hearts ache for Cheryl and the kids. One memory stands out among them all - as a kid, when our daughter Megan was at their house for a sleepover with Abby they woke up and wanted ice cream for breakfast. Fred said that was OK, after all it was a dairy product. And then there was the time we all got a bit weepy when we took our son Andrew and they took Adam to Gardner Webb.

Fred touched so many hearts in so many ways - a fine man. He will be missed.

*With deep respect and sadness,
