

Frederick Mohrmann Hibbert, Jr.

September 5, 1931 - April 20, 2025

Frederick Mohrmann Hibbert, Jr, a beloved member of the Mooresville community, passed away on April 20, 2025, at Novant Health Huntersville Medical Center.

He was born on September 5, 1931, in Yonkers, NY, to the late Frederick Mohrmann Hibbert, Sr. and Rose Rother Hibbert. Fred moved to North Carolina in 1986, where he embraced the warmth of the community and the splendor of the outdoors.

A proud veteran, Fred served honorably in the United States Navy from March 1951 to March 1955. His professional journey spanned over three decades at Industrial X-Ray Inc and culminated at Siemens Technology, where he excelled as a Supervisor and Quality Assurance Engineer. His dedication and work ethic were hallmarks of his long career.

In his retirement, Fred found profound joy intending to his yard and immersing himself in the beauty of nature. As he worked outdoors, the soothing sounds of talk radio filled the air, mirroring his curious mind and love for learning. An avid traveler, Fred ventured to all 50 states and explored 28 foreign countries, creating cherished memories both personally and professionally.

Music was another passion, with both classical and jazz resonating in his heart. He found solace in boating, fishing, and hunting, but his greatest love of all was for his family. In 2003, he met and married Fei, whom he often called the "Love of his life." Their companionship filled his later years with love and laughter.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his sister, Lydia; and brothers, Russell and Art.

Fred leaves behind a loving family, including his wife, Fei Hibbert; sisters, Eleanor and Joan; and numerous nieces and nephews: Missy, Christine, Marjorie, Bob, John, and Ronny. He is also survived by three children from a previous marriage, Janet, Dee, and Michael, who blessed him with a legacy of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Fred's life was a testament to resilience and devotion, and he held steadfast to his faith until God called him home on Easter Sunday 2025. His family invites you to celebrate his remarkable life and the lasting impact he had on their hearts.

Funeral services will be held at 11:30 AM on Wednesday, April 30, 2025, at the Cavin-Cook Funeral Home Chapel in Mooresville. Friends and family will have the opportunity to pay their respects during a visitation from 10:00 to 11:30 AM, prior to the service. A graveside service, with full military honors, will follow at 1:30 PM at Salisbury National Cemetery, Salisbury.

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home is honored to serve the Hibbert family during this time of remembrance and reflection. Condolences may be shared with the family at www.cavin-cook.com.

“ Fred was such a sweet thoughtful man. I met him through my husband who worked with him at then Westinghouse. He never came to our house without a bouquet of flowers for me. And he was the greatest cook! I enjoyed everything he made. We were sad when he decided to move from Florida to North Carolina but we stayed in touch with Christmas cards. I've always missed him. Fei I am truly sorry for your loss. I've been praying for you and Fred always. Love Cathy

“ To my only love Fred Hibbert

My name is Fei Hibbert, I am Fred's wife for 22 years.

To my perfect love Fred Hibbert, I m not perfect, but my husband made me feel like the most beautiful, interesting, funny and special woman in the world! I am so lucky to have been loved by him and he still everything to me! Its hard to find words to tell you how much you mean to me. If I did anything right in my life, it was when I gave my heart to you. I want you to know how deeply I appreciated you and everything you did for me!Twenty two years ago I went to this brand new country and he taught me to drive you were so patient and tolerant of me. Even after I failed the written test. Then I finally got my license. I hardly spoke English when I first came here,but I had very strong feelings for you, I knew you were a good man, a very good man. I didn't want to lose you so I started studying English very hard at school. You always encouraged me , and cheered me on. You never put me down You love me unconditional! You were not only an excellent, sweet husband but a good cook too, you always waited for me when I worked, no matter how late I got home. You loved your job and even after you retired, your boss still asked you work until you were 80 years old. You inspired me with your kindness and consideration. You never stopped donating to all kinds of organizations even when you lived on a fixed income. The love you showed to your children was unbelievable. Even when you got out of the hospital the first time, you insisted on going to your daughter's house and tried to help her mow the grass. You loved your sisters, nieces and nephews. You always loved your great time with them, and travel together helped me expand my knowledge of the different states. You loved your neighbors, you always tell me help neighbors, and make some special Chinese food eventhough you know I was not a good cook!

In 2023 you were diagnosed with several serious diseases, but you never give up! And you still kept your amazing, beautiful smile!

Thank you for allowing me to care for you in this diffcult time! You are a true warrior, a fighter. Although we only have 22 years together, you filled my heart 100% and thank you for making me a better person! I will love you forever and always!
