“ I was saddened when I received the news of your mothers death, I inherited her classroom at Easton when she retired. She left me a gift in the class and was so nice and caring when my daughter was ill. She offered me her daughters number to talk to doctors where she lived and told me if I wanted to go see those doctors to let her know. I was blessed to have met and known your mother. I send my sincere condolences. Rosalind Jenkins

“ Carla, David and families, I was shocked and saddened to hear about Gaye. Gaye and I roomed beside each other for two years at Wingate, and she was one of my dearest friends. I phoned Margie Edwards Holleman, her Wingate roommate, today. We shed some tears and also shared a few laughs about life in our college days. With sympathy and sadness, I am thinking of her family!
