“ *These song lyrics (and a million more) make me think of you:
This isn't the way that the story should end
This kind of hurt takes forever to mend
You said that fire flies were angels of light and moonbeams were highways that we could both ride
I couldn't follow you into the fire but I know in my heart you're alright cause you're dancing with angels tonight*

There are some hearts who bring a light so great into the world, that even after they're gone their light remains. You were always a light in this world. In my world and others.

*Hug my Addie for me until I can get there and hug you, her, and Bella again someday. You were the best friend I could have ever asked for. You and me like Idgie and Ruth in Fried Green Tomatoes. You will always be my Ruth. I love you, Gayle. Thank you for all the amazing memories full of laughter and ups and downs and kindness and love. They say God takes the good ones first - you were always an Earth Angel full of kindness and light and gone much too soon, so I guess its true. I will spend all my life working hard to continue sharing the gift of kindness in your honor. For the rest of my life, I will carry you with me in my heart and look for you in the stars. We will love you for always. Until we meet again my sweet best friend.
Love, H.*

“ *It's still so new,
This missing you.
And sometimes I forget,
And I start to call,
Then remember it all,
And the knowing steals my breath.* ”
