“ Gayle came into my life a few years ago. I cherish the memories of her savvy, vivacious personality. She spoke fondly of her trips with her beloved sister Faye singing various cities with their Gospel Choir. She loved her daughters dearly, Lacie and Laurie. She showed me all of the decorative plates from her travels around the world. Gayle was so very proud of Laurie, her accomplishments and Real Estate Career. Larry and Gayle loved their home on Lake Norman. They truly were hard workers and enjoyed the simple things in life. Gayle was a fantastic, talented floral artist. Gayle was a one of a kind lady who will truly be missed.
