“ George will be missed by everyone in the neighborhood. He was a good friend and obviously loved people and was always ready for a chat or to share neighborhood news. Our doggy Jake looked for George and Chloe every day on our walk and we talked while the doggys cavorted and sniffed around. Their antics caused many laughs. We offer our condolences to all of George's family at this sad time.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Jordan. While no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for "the former things have passed away". Please visit our website at jw.org if you want to learn about this beautiful hope and more.

“ George was one in a million. We loved him so much. He was so kind and always willing to help his neighbors and friends. When the girls were little they would get so excited to see that old Lance truck pull up because they knew their pal George had a treat for them. George looked out for everyone and he was family to everyone. We are so sorry for your loss. We are all better people for knowing George. Thank you Nancy, Toni, and Darrell for sharing him with us all these years. God bless you all during this difficult time.

“ George was such a good man and friend. They don't come any better. My dad, Phil Taylor, will never have a finer friend. Our hearts are heavy for all of you. We will miss our chats we had with George when we came by for the veggies he so freely shared from his garden.
