“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Raynes. Although I did not know him personally, I've experienced the loss of a loved one some years ago and know it is a difficult situation to face. I pray that his family and friends can find comfort in God's Word, the Bible, and continue to rely on Him in prayer. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they are resurrected back to life. We can be confident in that beautiful and exciting promise, and may it bring you hope and peace!

“ So sorry to read of Drew's death. My parents, Shirley & Bobby Blackburn, were neighbors on Pattternote Road when Mr. and Mrs. Raynes built their house there. Saw Drew a couple of years ago on Lake Norman in front of our house and it was quite a surprise. Both my parents passed away the summer of 2008 within 2 weeks of each other. So very sorry to hear of your loss.

“ My deepest felt condolences to Stephanie, children and family. I met Drew while I was dating one of his best friends back in the day. He was truly one of the sweetest guys, and had a great sense of humor. I have always cherished those memories and times. I pray for peace for your family, and will look upon the stars to see him shine!
