“ It took George a while to see and act on his need of Jesus as Savior. But once he made the decision to accept the grace and salvation Jesus provided for him, he never wavered.

He was steadfast and firm in his faith.

I know one of his greatest desires was that all his family would come to know Jesus as Savior.

He was a great brother. I just wish we could have been together more. We will see each other again once we all get HOME. Heaven awaits those who have received Jesus.

My prayers continue for you, Reba. And for all the children.

Blessings, Jerry

“ I was honored to know Preacher George-
It was hard to tell if he was kidding or not
He was a kidder:)
He loved the Lord n could send you to a verse
if you needed it:)
George adored his wife (Reba) n always put her first:)
Rip Preacher George !
