“ I knew Mike from our Corpus Christi /Chaminade / Julienne days. We had a lotta fun in those early years and I always looked forward to catching up with Mike at our many Reunions. He had a great sense of humor, and he could keep us all laughing!May you rest in the arms of our Dear Lord for all eternity, Mike.

“ Mike was a good friend to many in Michigan through the Grand Rapids Lions Club and other organizations that benefitted from his support. Whether on a community project, the golf course, or at deer camp, Mike was beloved by all who had the privilege of his acquaintance. I will miss him very much and offer profound condolences to his legions of friends and family. -- Mike Murphy
