

Georgia Spangler Barton

March 24, 2014 - March 24, 2014

Georgia Spangler Barton

(November 20, 1930 - March 24, 2014)

Georgia Spangler Barton, 83, of Cornelius, passed away on Monday, March 24, 2014 at home after a long illness.

Georgia was born on November 20, 1930 in Middlesboro, Kentucky where she lived all of her life prior to moving with Dick to North Carolina 20 years ago where they could be closer to three of their children. She was an avid lover of roses and always had a rose garden. She loved the fresh cut roses Dick would bring to her as she became more ill and was unable to take care for them herself. She also loved music and when she was able, was active in the church choir and in musical theater productions. She was a member of St. Patrick's Episcopal Church in Mooresville.

Georgia was preceded in death by her father, James Luther Spangler and her mother Nan Jenkins Spangler as well as 10 brothers and sisters.

She is survived by her loving husband of 63 years who was her high school sweetheart, Dick Barton. Dr. Barton has been her constant caregiver over the past years as her health declined. She died at home, which was her wish to do. She is also survived by her five children, Jane Barton McKenzie and husband, Jim, Julie Barton Richardson and husband, Scott, Jennifer Barton McClung and husband, John, Jill Barton Mounts and husband, Jimmie, Adam Conroy Barton and wife, Hollie; Jeffrey McKenzie, Jami McKenzie Regan, Lindsay Pitz Dunn, Meredith Marthers Carver; and great-grandchildren, Ava Regan, Ella Regan, Zackary Carver.

A Celebration of Life will be held at 4:00 PM on Thursday, March 27 at St. Patrick's Episcopal Church with The Rev. Mark S. Forbes officiating. The family will receive friends prior to the service from 3:00-4:00 PM at the church.

Memorials may be made to St. Patrick's Episcopal Church, PO Box 1491, Mooresville, NC 28115.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Georgia. She is someone that I will always hold dear to my heart. She gave me so much needed encouragement and strenght when I was going to college at LMU. She was so possitive and had a smile that was contagious. We had many talks and her words were always what I needed. I feel that I am who I am today because of her love and understanding. I pray for your family because I know she will be greatly missed. Heaven has a new angel and she is singing in the choir! God be with you all Missy MayesMiddlesboro, Ky

“ Georgia Spangler Barton was my Mother's (Margaret Spangler Dozier, who passed March 13, 2011) youngest sister. My heart goes out to Uncle Dick and all of my cousins, and my prayers are with you all. I loved Aunt Georgia so much, and will greatly miss her. The attached photo was taken when she visited me in 1978, Lubbock, TX when she flew out to visit me during one of my performances at Texas Tech University. She was a very loving and talented person. God bless my family. I miss you and thank God that I was able to visit my Aunt last summer!

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Barton. Although I did not know her personally, I, too, have experienced the loss of a loved one some years ago and know it is a difficult situation to face. I pray that her family and friends can find comfort in God's Word, the Bible, and continue to rely on Him in prayer. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they are resurrected back to life. What a beautiful and exciting hope that is!

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Although, I do not know your family personally, I would like to share some encouraging thoughts from the Bible. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope.

“ To the Barton Family: I am sorry to hear about the passing of Georgia. It is never easy to deal with the death of a loved one but hopefully knowing that she is no longer suffering from any illness can offer a small measure of comfort. It is times likes this that make us look forward when death will be no more along with the pain caused by it (Revelation 21:4).

“ Sorry to hear of Georgia's passing. She was a great person, honest, fair, classy. So, was Dick. And so, a little of the elegance has passed from the world. Here, in Middlesboro, she will be , always, remembered with a smile.

“ What a special lady. The Barton family was like my own family growing up in Middlesboro. My family spent a lot of time together with them. I have so many wonderful memories of good times together. Will cherish those memories forever! Love to all of you.
