“ What I will remember most about my cousin Georgia is how kind she was. Never an unkind word for anyone, even as a teenager. As a child there are photos of her holding a younger cousin and offering a big smile along with encouragement. We enjoyed all the holidays with lots of food and love. Beautiful souls like Georgia are special and God bless her for all the happiness she has shared with us...Love you Cousin Louise

“ I met Georgina 40 years ago when I knocked on her door and she held it wide open and said "come on in" That's all you need to know about Georgina. That door was a metaphor for her heart, wide open and always welcoming. I first met her as the mom to my dear friend Mary, but I knew her better as the grandmother to all her grands and great grands. No one compared. Her love, kindness and warmth knew no bounds. She will be missed by so very many people but none more than her family. I have such sweet memories of the last time I saw her, at her first grand-daughter's baby shower. That is how I want to remember her. Bustling around with a huge smile and a helping hand. That was when she was happiest. Doing, constantly doing for others. I will miss you Georgina. There will never be another like you.

We knew Georgina only a few short years but she was always a very thoughtful lady. Her special dinners made you feel like royalty when you were invited. We treasure the times we were privileged to spend with her. We will miss her deeply.
