“ Hi, my name is Kecia Ward. I work for the security company that monitors the business Andy worked for. The third shift, second shift, and I would talk to Andy on his way in and out of work during the evenings. A lot of times until the AM. He and I would have long talks about all sorts of things like accounting and his special jokes. We also talked about the Panthers and the Hornets, his Monday morning meetings with all those ladies in the office, and all the work shops he had to go to. He was always in good spirits and really funny. We love him with all our hearts and will miss him dearly. RIP ANDY

“ Good morning Mr. and Mrs. Reott, I just wanted to express my sympathy and let you know that my thoughts are with you and your family. I can vouch to Andy was a great CPA and was very dedicated to his profession. And that Andy was extremely good natured, sweet man, and very generous. At the NCACPA conference sign ins, Andy and I would always team up. And although I would only see him 3 times a year ... he made you feel like you were his best friend... always asking "how's the family, Bonnie and the grand kids?" He had his way of putting you first. It is going to be a little different without Andy at the NCACPA Spring and Fall Conferences. You and your family are in my prayers. Andy's friend Always, Jim Winters

“ Andy was the oldest cousin and I was the youngest. He was the leader of all the kids and I thought he was the coolest. I will always remember him as a creative and fun cousin that I looked up too. I can't imagine how much pain you all are feeling at the shock of losing him. He was such a precious gift to your family. My prayers are with you and I know that you must feel such depth of grief that it seems nothing can heal it. Andy loved his family and you brought him so much joy. I am so deeply sorry for your loss and I wish that Jesus in his mercy will watch over the Reott family during this impossibly difficult time. I love you May god send his angels to watch over you all! “ Andy was a dear friend of mine through the NC Association of CPAs. We sat together over many years at the annual fall conference, shared many meals together along with other friends. I will greatly miss his smile, his humor, his presence. My prayers are with all of the Reott family and all those who loved Andy. We will all miss him greatly!
