“ Seldom in this era do you find such a cohesive family as the Adams Family. Wayne and Andrea were so supportive of each other, a true union of love. Their collaborative guidance as parents would make any offspring feel privileged. . Monterai grew up within a stellar environment becoming the lady Wayne and Andrea so cherish. Wayne was always so positive in everything he did and a pleasure to visit. He was kind, caring and gentle with a wild sense of humor. Everyone who knew Wayne will surely miss him. My deepest sympathy especially knowing how much Andrea and Monterai will miss him.

“ Andrea & Monterai, I had the pleasure of working with Wayne on a data conversion project a few years back. He was always willing to help and I enjoyed speaking with him about non-work related topics too. We swapped stereo-types about him being from WV and me being a CT Yankee, but it was all in good fun. I'm glad I got to know him and miss the interactions we had. My sympathies to you both.

“ Wayne was a coworker and friend for 17 years. A wonderful, caring man with almost as weird a sense of humor as I have. A very professional man but could make you laugh when you were with him. My heartfelt condolences to Andrea and his beloved daughter. Anybody who knew Wayne knew the LOVE and PRIDE he felt for the two of you. You'll be missed by all of us, Bubba.
