“ I was blessed to have Grace as a second mother and also a dear friend. We will all miss her but know her worldly journey is over, that she is with Christ and as my brother said "she is now dancing on the clouds". So many found memories.... I love you Grace

“ Frances & Charles send condolences to Willie Wade Sapp and his son a daughters in their hour of grief, desiring and praying that God will supply all their needs and support in this hour of their sorrow. They and we know that one day in God's time we will see Grace again as she comes with Christ to take His Bride Home to His Father. May God continue to bless and keep you in His Grace. In Christ until we meet Him in the air, Charles and Frances.

“ Wade: I treasure the time I lived with you and Grace. You in your chair, she in hers and me on the couch in the sunroom. A very peaceful time for me. You were both so gracious. Much love and hugs from me. Denny, Sharon, Brenda and Melissa: I know how much you will miss her. She was a great Christian lady. Elizabeth, Emily, Erin and Erica: She loved you girls SO much....make sure your kids are reminded of how much she loved THEM.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Sapp. Although I don't know the family personally, I'd like to offer some consolation from God's Word, the Bible. John 5:28, 29 speaks of our loved ones being resurrected, and living in the future conditions described at Revelation 21:4, which reads: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain by anymore. The former things have passed away." I pray that the promise of this beautiful resurrection gives you all hope for the future and peace of mind now!
