“ Greg, you will always be missed but never forgotten. You were such a sweet, loving, and caring little boy that grew up into a sweet, loving, and caring young man and father. You have always been loved very much and always will be. Your spirit and love will continue on thru your beautiful little girls. Christina and I love you.

“ "It takes a village to raise a child". That's what they say. I'm glad I was part of your of your village! Struggles, we had many; memories, we made plenty; love, that's the one that stands the tallest!!! I love you tons, and I know with out a doubt you felt it from me!!! Your babies will continue to reap the bennifits of this village. Rest assured we all love you, and will love to pieces those two gems that called you DADDY!

“ I can remember the first time I met greg. He was 5yrs. old and a little cutie. From that day on, I became close to him, like an aunt I guess you could say. It was a short while ago that he reminded me of when I had taken him to a drive-in movie theatre here in WV. I never realized that I had such an impact on a little boys life. I truly loved him like my nephew. It breaks my heart that he is gone, but heaven gained a beautiful soul!!! I will cherish the memories I have of him. fly high greg!!!

“ I loved Greg so much. I may not have been his natural Grandmother but he was my stepgrandson and him and his kids meant so much to me. He loved his kids so much. To my loving son in law George and family, Praying Gods comforting hands be upon you through this most difficult time. We love you and know we are here for you all. Greg, you are flying high with the angels. We will miss you greatly.
