

Gregory Jack Biffle

December 23, 1969 - December 18, 2025

Gregory Jack Biffle, 55, of Mooresville North Carolina passed away on December 18, 2025. Greg was born in Portland Oregon on December 23, 1969 to Garland Jack and Sally Biffle.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Cristina Grossu, 35, daughter, Emma Biffle, 14, son, Ryder Biffle, 5, and his father, Jack Biffle. Greg is survived by his mother, Sally Biffle, his brother, Jeffrey Biffle (Kelly), his niece and her son, Jordyn Carpenter (David) and Jack Carpenter, and his niece Megan Waldron (Klynten) and her daughter Charlotte.

Greg grew up in Vancouver Washington. He was guided by his father in pursuit of machinery, fabrication, and racing. Through determination and talent, he joined Roush Racing as a professional driver and went on to win countless races and two championships over the span of nearly 20 years. He left a lasting impact on the sport and was named one of NASCAR's 75 greatest drivers.

He had a million hobbies and was good at all of them. He loved to fish, tinker and buy equipment, race in the sand dunes, but most of all he loved to be around people. He supported and cared for every friend he had. He was intelligent and curious with an answer to almost any problem. His life was loud, busy, full, and fast.

Greg was a dedicated philanthropist. He cared for animal welfare, creating the Greg Biffle Foundation to provide grants to humane societies across the country. He was a member of the board of Lake Norman Humane and helped build their facilities. Greg was also passionate about blood donation as a universal donor. Once he retired from racing he started dabbling in hurricane relief by driving to Florida with extra fuel for stranded individuals and helping transport displaced animals from the shelters. What became most notable was his work in Western North Carolina during Hurricane Helene. He risked his life to help others, and would never second guess it. To many, he was a hero.

He loved his children and wife without limit. Cristina was a perfect match for his energy and enthusiasm, but brought balance to his day-to-day. Emma (Mother-Nicole) was his love in the purest form. She helped him slow down, be softer, and served as a reminder of what was in his heart when days were long. Ryder was his right hand and reignited the innocent joy of boyhood for Greg, with endless laughs and jokes. They loved to travel to the Bahamas to disconnect and cherish their time together. The impact the family had on so many people will be felt forever. They will be missed dearly, and impossible to forget.

The family encourages charitable donations in honor of Greg's service-minded spirit through the Red Cross and Lake Norman Humane.

A celebration of life is being planned. Details will be shared when available. Thank you for your continued support of our privacy during this difficult time.

His ability to excel in NASCAR and in the animal rescue and humanitarian world (Hurricane Helene, etc.) are just a few of his many contributions. God Bless his immediate and extended families. “ We never met Greg or his family in person but felt like we knew him. We watched his vlogs and followed his journey, especially alongside Cleetus Mc Farland (Garrett Mitchell). Greg was a true hero during Hurricane Helene helping Appalachian communities in their time of need. Beyond his success in NASCAR, his love for his family, friends and all the fur babies in the area showed the kind and loving and generous heart he had. He never forgot who he was and never acted as if he was better than anyone else. He had always ready to step up whenever he was needed!! He will be deeply missed and never forgotten. Greg, you made the world a better place!!! Thank you... "Be like Biff" and "Rip those sleeves"

“ I had a family member who had passed away's dogs unexpectedly have puppies just before his passing and after having someone help us adopt out all of the puppies, they kept us updated on where they all went. One of them ended up in a Georgia kill shelter and we were told that Greg had rescued one of them. I did some Googling and I'm pretty sure there's a few pictures of her with him that helped young me get a little closure that at least one puppy went to a good home. Thank you, Greg and rest in peace to you and your family and friends.

“ I met Greg briefly at Rutherfordton Airport in Rutherfordton NC, right after Hurricane Helene. I was helping distribute and sort items for the survivors of the flood in western NC. Of course he was there loading his copter. He was such a blessing to so many people in NC. His smile was so bright and his jokes were sometimes funny 🤔. The love he had for people and compassion for the displaced lost pets from the flood was unimaginable! He was/is NC's Hero and Warrior. He had a firm handshake and the kindest eyes. I will never forget who he was and always will be. I'm glad he went to Heaven with his family but my heart breaks for Emma's Mother. God be with this precious family. Let them be reminded what an awesome family they all are. Give comfort to his mom, sister and brothers, family and friends 💔

“ Many years ago I was a huge Nascar fan. I cannot say that I was a Greg Biffle fan. I was a fan of his team mate . I always respected all of the Roush drivers though. I became a HUGE Greg and Christina Biffle fan during Hurricane Helene. I was not personally affected by the storm. Our county sent supplies and first responders. Greg and Christine led the charge to get supplies and communication equipment to those in need. I watched videos of the Biffles taking in supplies on Facebook and Youtube. These folks taught me more about giving back! They are heroes! After the storm passed I kept up with Greg on Facebook through Garrett Mitchell and Cletus McFarland. Watchin all the videos made me feel like I knew these folks. I pray for the Biffle's family. God bless you all! RIP Greg, Christina, Ryder, and Emma. America will miss you!

“ I knew Greg from when Grainger was his sponsor. I met him through my mother Pattie Rosolanko (1947-2022). I am so glad she was not here to have experience this. As strong as she was, this would have broken her. I wish I could've known Greg well enough to call him a friend. Greg you will be missed. If you find my mother up there, have a drink with her.

“ Firstly my Deepest Condolences to all. Greg was a remarkable human being as was his beautiful Cristina and children. Greg showed the world what it truly means to care for others. My son Zach is a reporter for NASCAR and was fortunate to sit next to Greg and Cristina at an event last February and saw Greg again a few months ago. He had such praise for both of him and especially noted how humble and down to earth Greg was. It was evident in all the videos Greg posted. It was beautiful seeing the bond he and Cristina shared and the love he had for his gorgeous children. Greg was the epitome of what it means to be an American Hero. Greg (and Cristina) has inspired us to be better people and care more about people as well as animals. They shall never be forgotten. May they all Rest In Eternal Peace. 🙏🙏🙏

“ Greg was one of the first drivers I can remember rooting for when I was a kid and he was a rookie in the Busch Series. I followed his whole career as a fan, and then had the good fortune of meeting Greg a few years ago on NASCAR Hall of Fame voting day when I was covering the event as a member of the media.

My thoughts of Greg as a great race car driver go without saying, and it was a lot of fun the past few years to see how much he was enjoying himself in his second act. But it was his efforts in helping the people of Western North Carolina after Helene that gave me a newfound admiration for him. I cannot express enough how remarkable it was to see him go above and beyond for those who so desperately needed it, and as far as I'm concerned, it makes him a national hero.

I have felt Greg's loss enormously, and my heart breaks for his friends and loved ones and over this horrible tragedy. Just a few days before the accident, Greg had actually liked a wisecrack I had made on Twitter relating Philip Rivers throwing a touchdown in an NFL game after being retired for years to the time Greg won a Truck race at Texas in his first race after being out of the car for years. I have been thinking of that constantly and will cherish that I was able to amuse one of my heroes in a small way before he left us.

I want to wish the Biffle family peace, comfort, and faith in Our Lord's mercy and healing. It is my belief that Greg and his family are with God now and have earned the holiest and most deserved of rewards in Heaven.

“ Greg definitely fueled my love for racing. So many great memories that I hold dear to my heart!! Not long after our family met him in 1994, my parents (Dick & Carolyn Spencer) invited him over for a bbq. I was 14 and we had a field car that I would drive. I talked Greg into taking me for a ride - and boy howdy!! He got so dang close to the barbed wire fence on my side of the car. Scared me to death... but when we stopped, the adrenaline was running and I said “let’s go again!!” I am glad to have known him and be able to call he and his family our friends. Sally, Jeff, Jordyn & Megan - I am so incredibly sorry that your hearts are broken. There are really just no words. Sending my love to all of you from Vancouver, Wa!

This has broken my heart. I have followed Greg Biffle for 10 or more years. I was born and raised in Mullens WV where Greg had a Summer home but has since sold it. I live outside of Charlotte. This is such a tragedy. I know they are in Heaven with no worries of this world. We will see them again when God calls us home.
