Dr. Hardin Bland Grigsby, age 100, died on May 16, 2022, of natural causes surrounded by loved ones at his house in Bridgton, Maine.

He was born in Vincennes, Indiana on January 18, 1922. His parents were Osa and Walter Grigsby. Bland was the youngest of seven children. He married Eleanor Glenn Atkins, also of Vincennes.

His career as a physician spanned 35 years. He spent six years as a General Practitioner in Lebanon, Indiana, before doing a Residency in OB-GYN and moving to Mooresville, North Carolina in 1965.
