“ Jason and Kristen, what I am feeling right now is very hard to put in words. What do you say in a situation as this other than I am so sorry. Haven is a beautiful child and her beauty will remain forever etched in the hearts of this family. Much love to you all and we will continue to keep you both in our prayers as well as Korbin, Taitlyn, the grandparents, aunts, uncles and all of the children within this close knit family that has been touched by this. Praying that God will help them to understand this difficult part of life that is so hard to explain when there are no answers as to why. With all our love, Belinda and Family

“Krista, Jason, Korbin, Taitlyn and each member of your precious families, Know that upon hearing of your loss on March 26th we began to pray for you and hurt for/with you. Haven May was truly a beautiful baby and now a precious little angel in the arms of Jesus. No words can express how incredibly sorry we are, but we know God has a purpose and plan for all of our lives; even in those times when we do not understand. May you be comforted by knowing she is in safely in heaven (how appropriate is her name!!) and that you WILL see her again someday. Much love & continued prayer for peace and comfort, Angie & John
