

Hazel Harrington

January 19, 1933 - July 30, 2019

Hazel Knox Harrington

She was born Hazel Rebecca Knox, January 19, 1933, on Langtree Road. Like most Depression-era families, those early years were a struggle, especially being the eldest of four children. But it was this part of her childhood that would later define her personality.

A free spirit with an infectious smile, Hazel soon longed for travel and adventure. She embarked for the world when she began working for Eastern Airlines in the 1950's. She later was lured to both Lufthansa and Air France, before returning to Eastern where she stayed until her retirement. It was soon after that she was called back to her North Carolina roots, settling in Mooresville to be near family.

In retirement, she stayed busy with Davidson United Methodist Church where she had been a member since 1945. She enjoyed her numerous friendships made in the Christian Women's Club, Eastern Airlines Silverliners, and the Retired Eastern Pilots Association. Her ideal day was lunch with a friend and a trip to Steinmart; because you can never have too many shoes.

Our family matriarch, she usually led grace over family meals and looked back on the lean years with a humorous tale and a chuckle. With her quintessential southern charm and grace, she brought a gentle kindness which she unselfishly extended to her circle of family and friends.

Surviving are son Steve Lackey and wife Marilyn of Davidson, daughter Rebecca Cronin and husband Patrick of Davidson, daughter-in-law Marie Harrington of Tallahassee, FL, granddaughters Sara Keys (Greg) of Mooresville, and Kim Dinsmore (Tim) of Virginia Beach, great-grandchildren Myla, Amelia, and Pierce. Also surviving are sister Sara Tice and nephew Michael Haire of Mooresville, brother Robert Knox, nephew Robert Knox, Jr. and niece Lori Wallace.

She was preceded by her husband of 32 years, Theodore Harrington, step-son Gary Harrington, her beloved mother, the colorful Georgia Honeycutt, sister Carolyn Annie Knox, and father Robert Knox.
