“ My mom taught me to be the strong, independent woman I am. She taught me everything from cooking and cleaning to being a kind and caring mother and friend. She had the deepest, unconditional love for her children and although we were not all angels, she thought so. She would do anything for her children and those in need. She could always calm our fears and offer her wisdom to work out any problems we had. She had very big shoulders to lean on and I leaned on them many times. She is my hero, my rock and my role model. I'm so proud to have had her as my mother and best friend. I will sorely miss her, but she will always be in my heart and mind.

“ My dear friend Hazel will be missed, she and I laughed a lot when we met about 8 years ago, we went shopping, had lunch together, and really did enjoy each others company. I loved to joke with her that I would sell my house and move in with her, I think she would have loved that.... Thank you my friend for such great memories, I miss you already and feel an emptiness in my broken heart..... My condolences to the family, and thank you Lisa. Lyn Bayne
