“ Hazel will be missed. She was mighty good to my husband when they worked at Templon. If they had a dinner she always made something she knew he could eat. (Diabetic). She was good to my son who was friends with Gary. They both said she was a good cook. Prayers are with you Gary and Linda.

“ So very sorry of the loss of Aunt Hazel, but thankful she is at peace now and no longer suffering. She is now with Bill, Wayne, little Wayne, her mom and dad, all of her brothers and sisters who went before her. Lots of memories from growing up when families were always getting together, and from working with her, Bill, and Linda many years at General Times. R.I.P. Aunt Hazel, you were so loved and will be greatly missed. Your niece, Gail
