“ Dear Bill,
Eric and I are so fortunate to have been friends and 2X neighbors with you and Heidi. There are so many fond memories that we shared, but most recent were the days we spent together at Crystal Pier in San Diego. We had such a great time reminiscing our times together and laughing at that crazy weekend of Burro Races, Bucket Brigade and “sandcamping” at Calico Ghost Town. There have been so many more. These are the times we will remember and miss Heidi. Find comfort in knowing we will see her in all of the things she loved and again when we get to Heaven. Sending our Love to all the Jarretts. What a beautiful service for a most loved and cherished lady. I am sure she was there in spirit and loved the beauty of the day and the birds chirping. It was a perfect "HeidiDay" with heartfelt love by all. We will miss your sweet smile and laugh. Eric and Constance Bonanni

Bill & Family. It was nice to hear from you today, Easter Sunday. Unfortunately, the news was to let us know of Heidi's passing. Please accept our heartfelt condolences. Bill, We always enjoyed spending time with you & Heidi when we came out to Palm Springs. We enjoyed visiting with you & going out to the area restaurants. You both were always so gracious to us. We really want to come to North Carolina to come see you & visit. When we make the trip, Heidi we will come by to visit you. We will miss your kindness, your smile & visiting with you & Bill. Rest In Peace Heidi & we Shall see you again. Greg, Celia & family

“ Bill, Ethan. Amy, Taylor & Will. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Our memories of Heidi are spending time with she & Bill at The House in Huntington Beach that Ethan & Adam rented. Always laughs & enjoying cocktail time. We also have fond memories going to Heidi & Bill's home on Eastlake for the Christmas Boat Parade. Hugs to you all at this difficult time. RIP Heidi...❤️
