“ Elaine and family,
I was so sorry to hear of your mother’s death. I enjoyed having her as a neighbor on Oak Meadow Rd. I remember one day I was out walking my Poodle and she invited me in to talk. I was so worried about taking the dog into her house. She welcomed us both in and thankfully the dog had his best manners on and sat on my feet while we visited. She was a good friend to my mother. They knew each other in college and continued their friendship when your mother moved back to Mooresville
Love to you,
Elizabeth Arthurs
