“ What a special lady! I was one of the volunteers from the Iredell Council on Aging who delivered meals to Ms. Pope, and she was always one of my favorite people. Unfailingly cheerful, even with her many health problems. I know you will miss her.

My most sincere condolences.

Helen has always been a lady close to my heart. When I was a GA teacher I would take the girls to see her and they would sing for her. She wanted lo talk to each one and always had a treat to give them, Several times I took her and Sofie to see Helen's brother, Mack. They laughed, talked and sang together. It was a special time which I will always remember, I will be praying for the family and Sophie. Sending by love to you, Linda Freeze
