“ Our hearts have been lifted and blessed by having Helen in our lives. They now soar with her spirit as she continues her journey. Helen left this world a warmer and nicer place for having lived in it. She focused her energy in life on tending to the needs of others, in her family, her career, and her church. Her service to families in grief was offered with empathy and compassion and a generous helping of love. She led her Sunday School class with sincerity, prayer, earnest study, and a dash of humor. We may feel a little lost as we continue to look for her in this world, but are more greatly comforted by the assurance that her journey takes her out of our sight and into the presence of our Lord. The family would like to offer special thanks to the staff of Jurney's Assisted Living Center for their service to her as she required more help with everyday activities, and the staff at Gordon Hospice House of Statesville as she made the transition away from this earthly life and out of our sight. Good Journeys and all our love, Helen.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. McLean. Although I did not know her personally, the loss of a loved one is definitely a trying time for all. I pray that her family and friends can find comfort in God’s Word the Bible, and continue to rely on Him in prayer. At John 5:28, 29 we read: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...” May the promise of this beautiful resurrection give you hope and peace of mind!

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Although, I do not know your family personally, I would like to share some encouraging thoughts from the Bible. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope.
