

Henry Thales Sink

March 30, 1927 - December 3, 2017

Henry Thales Sink, 90, of Mooresville, passed away on Sunday, December 3, 2017 at Gordon Hospice House in Statesville. He was born on March 30, 1927 in Mooresville, to the late Joe and Georgia Nance Sink. Mr. Sink was a WWII veteran serving in the US Army. He was a 1944 graduate of Mooresville High School and attended Vanderbilt University and NC State University. Mr. Sink was a retired police officer and fireman from the Town of Mooresville. He was a member of Central United Methodist Church in Mooresville, where he sang in the choir for 30 years and was a Boy Scout leader for many years. Henry was a fine musician playing harmonica with enthusiasm at every opportunity. Mr. Sink was an avid fisherman and a baseball fan all of his life. He will be fondly remembered for riding his bicycle around town wearing his straw hat. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his son, Richard Newton Sink; brother, Joe G. Sink, Jr.; and brother-in-law, John Wayne Rummage. He is survived by his wife, Mary Louise Newton Sink; daughter, Catherine "Cathy" Frye and husband, Lincoln; daughter-in-law, Muriel Sink; sister, June S. Rummage; and grandchildren, Kyle Frye and wife, Lindsay, Iris Frye, Sam Sink and wife, Dominika. A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date. Cavin-Cook Funeral Home & Crematory, Mooresville, is serving the Sink family. Condolences may be made to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.

“ Lou and Cathy, it was with such sadness that I learned of the loss of Henry. We certainly have wonderful memories of the time we lived next door to one another. You and Henry were so good to Cliff and Blair, and Cathy ,what would we have done without our most precious babby sitter? Please know that caring and loving thoughts and prayers with you.
