“ To the Martin Family, I would like to express my deepest sorrow in hearing of the passing of Ina. Many wonderful memories flood my mind as I think back on a lifetime of knowing her and also knowing you. Hearing her tell about her yearly bus trips to spring training camps in florida to watch baseball was truly a treat. Also those ham biscuits at lsenhour reunions and shearer church gatherings were always delicious, but the fondest memories I have are of being a kid and going to Camp Grier with the Shearer church group and the joy and fun we all had their. Ina (and you dad) were truly great christian leaders of that church and group. She will be missed but they sure are having some really good ham biscuits in heaven.
